Radio Station WYBC
Yale University
New Haven, Conn.

Dear Dave,

As our production director, Bud Schweich, had written to you earlier, we will of course be glad to feed you the Yale-Dartmouth basketball game on February 15, and it will be sponsored by Phillip Morris.

As we are playing Yale in New Haven on February 12th, we would be most happy to take a feed from you for that game, likewise sponsored by Phillip Morris. Please let me know soon if this will be possible.

Since this home and home series are being played within one week, I thought it might be good idea if we exchanged taped interviews with the respective coaches before the game. We could wrap the shows up into 10 or 15 minutes, giving a run-down of the basketball team, data on the players, etc.

We at WDBS think that this exchange of programs between members of the Ivy Network has been working out fine, and hope it will continue to do so. (We sent an earlier broadcast to Princeton.)

I hope to hear from you soon, so that we can get the wheels moving.

Sincerely yours,

Andy Stern
